A Look at Freshman Week

By M. C. Murray

Welcome to something New . . . College, Welcome to something Different . . .
Freshman Week.
Checking in and touring the grounds,
Finding your room and checking it out, Trying to look strong instead of mild and meek,
The uncertainty, of Freshman Week.
The Assembly in Weinstein, neither boring nor plain,
The outdoor barbecue in the pouring rain, Checking your dorm roof for newly sprung leaks,
Oh, the excitement of Freshman Week.
Our introduction to College food, The placement tests that heightened our mood,
The Liberal Arts Curriculum, a much needed treat,
The downs and ups of Freshman Week.
"Not the Caf!", as work study was assigned,
"Serendipity" put ideas in our minds,
"Identifying Your Strengths" was really neat,
And it's only Monday of Freshman Week.
We met more and more people as the week progressed,

There was no time to feel homesick or depressed,
Everyone's so friendly sincere and sweet,
The better points of Freshman Week.
Shlegro Circle — Meeting the little girls and boys, I always loved playing with Tinker Toys,
Building newspaper towers really made it complete,
The children in us, rediscovered Freshman Week.
Registration was really a blast,
Being closed out of every class, You must have patience if you want to compete,
The disappointments of Freshman Week
Finally — Serendipity Night, Clowns,
"Scrubbing Bubbles", all sorts of sights, We must've been good, everyone stayed in their seats,
The satisfaction of Freshman Week.
The Weekend was here to recuperate,
Or if you had strength, to go out on a date, It was all on our faces, there was no need to speak, HOORAY! The end of Freshman Week!

SEA TREASURES

The sea has cast up
So many treasures for us.
The beach is dotted with shells of every description . . .
furled and latticed by nature's artistry, sculptured and turned, bleached to a dazzling white or shimmering with a pearly sheen.

At first we want them all — we run to catch each one, but soon we realize that these are only shells — empty houses left by the creatures of the sea . . .
and we lay all but the most beautiful aside and carry one or two away with us.

Just as one cannot collect all the beautiful shells on the beach, so one cannot collect all the moments of wonder . . .
all the songs of joy, all the times of triumph that are a part of life.

But we can clasp the ones that come to us close to our hearts, where they will remain forever.

Stuck

"I cannot go to school today," said little Peggy Ann McKay. "I have the measles and the mumps, a gash, a rash and purple bumps. My mouth is wet, my throat is dry. I'm going blind in my right eye. My tonsils are as big as rocks. I've counted sixteen chicken poxes. And there's one more — that's seventeen, and don't you think my face looks green? My leg is cut, my eyes are blue — it might be the instamatic flu. I cough and sneeze and gasp as if I hold my breath. I'm sure that my left leg is broke — My hip hurts when I move my foot. My belly button's caving in, My back is wrenched, my ankle's sprained, my appendix pains each time it rains. My nose is cold, my toes are numb. I have a sliver in my thumb. My head is spinning, my spine is weak, I have to whisper when I speak. . . . My tongue is hanging up my mouth, I think my hair is falling out. My elbow's bent, my spine ain't straight, my temperature is one-o-eight. My brain is shrunk, I cannot hear, There is a hole inside my ear. I have a hangnail and my heart is — what?? What's that? What's that you say? You say today is . . . Saturday?? G'bye, I'm going out to play!!

TEACHER'S PRAYER

I want to teach my students how To live this life on earth
To face its struggles and its strife And to improve their worth
Not just the lesson in the book Or how the rivers flow
But how to choose the proper path Wherever they may go, To understand eternal truth And know the right from wrong
And gather all the beauty Of a flower and a song For if I help the world to grow In wisdom and in grace Then I shall feel that I have won And I have filled my place And so I ask your guidance, God That I may do my part For character and confidence And happiness of heart.

*The longer I love the more beautiful life becomes The earth's beauty grows on me.
If you foolishly ignore beauty you'll soon find yourself without it . . . but wisely invest in beauty it will remain with you all the days of your life.*

You who are on the road must have a code that you can live by and so become yourself because the past is just a good bye

Teach your children well their father's hell did slowly go by and feed them on your dreams the one they picked the one you'll know by

*Don't you ever ask them why if they told you, you would cry
So just look and them and sigh and know they love you.*

And you out tend the years count all the fears that you held as goodbye and so, please help them with your needs they see the trick before they can die.

Teach your parents well, their children's hell will slowly go by and feed them on your dream the one they picked, the one you'll know by. Don't you ever ask them why

*If they told you, you would cry
So just look at them and sigh
And know they love you.*

Pretend this is your last day on earth . . . go down to the water and feed bread crusts to the birds . . . Polish a table . . . Walk to town for a change . . . walk slow and see things . . . Buy a mouse . . . Let it go . . . Start a button collection, or match books, or rocks . . . Begin a diary . . . Learn ten new words from the dictionary . . . Play an old record . . . Find your favorite poem and re-read it . . . study a leaf in the light . . . Shine all your shoes . . . Make some popcorn . . . Wash a car . . . Practice smiling in a mirror . . . Don't say once during the day, "There's nothing to do around here!!"

May a peace reign in your soul and leave no room for hate may a light forever be in your head and leave no space for impurity may time forever be on your side and leave none to the past may someone always care for you and never leave you alone may God always see you and leave you unto his guidance may you lead a happy life and leave none behind you.

The yearbook staff would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone for their patience in the production of another successful book.

*On a clear day Rise and look around you And you'll see who you are. On a clear day how it will astound you. That the glow of your being outshines every star. You feel a part of every mountain and shore.
You can hear, from far and near, a world you've never heard before.
And on a clear day, on that clear day You can see forever and ever more!*

"The Reunion"

Weinstein has been buzzing this past week in anticipation of the 10 year reunion of the class of '79. This day that has been so carefully planned is now just 24 hours away.

The festivities organized by Deedee Straus, pro basketball player, Karen Urbain and Karin Jakobs were to be kicked off with a picnic lunch at scenic Gilson park. Wes Eary and Randy Steinheimer offered to set up tents for the affair. Shannon Jester South and Lori Kaspar Newyear have taken care of the musical entertainment. The donations do not end here. NBC media consultant Tony Spreitzer will install the P.A. system.

Pam Jones a driving instructor in Colorado will attend to host the afternoon activities. To cover the sporting events we will have Brenda Pitts.

The world famous softball team challenged class members in the afternoon. The team includes Wes Eary, Julie Fleming, David Keely, Vicki Momper and Sue Tabaka. The tennis matches bring out the talented of our alumni. In the women's tournament Laurel Stohlman looks like the favorite although there are many in the wings waiting for a chance to defeat her. The prime opponent will be Nancy Fragassi. Colleen Skelton and Sharon Tom are also strong contenders.

The night's activities include a variety show put on by none other than our talented alumnis and hosted by that vivacious nightclub singer Micki Sopko. The opening act will be Lisa Newman and her dance revue. Doing another dance number will be Betty Hill, Linda Rapps, Pat Postma and Kathy Travers. Debbie Boho and Kathy Amstadt, who have been seen all over the country as the doublemint twins will brighten our stage with their spearmint smiles. Jodi Roth, who had her body bronzed by Alice McLean's husband, will fly in from the Smithsonian where she was on display, to be on view during this evening's performance. Kevin Wehner will then give us his rendition of dynamo hum on his kazoo while Kim Antonson, Valerie Massenberg and Faith McCarthy display their bump and bunny hop techniques.

Well, the big day has finally arrived and the turnout is predicted to be quite successful. We owe credit to Lorraine Hasabe who promoted our reunion. Our first guests have been spotted swimming into shore. Dorothy Dwyer, Debbie Hirakawa, Debra Lynch and Barb Voegeli who were challenged by Miss Noonan.

Lisa McCarty, whose invitation was lost but sensed the upcoming reunion by her tickling toes, will be coming from the city. Following close behind will be Sue Del Monaco, Priscilla Kunzell, Dawn Steinberg, and Lynn Froehlich who decided to jog to the reunion. Leah Currie and Barb Rayniak popped in on their way to the ICEE promising to return later. Terri Aldergott, Bunnie Edens, Donna Newton and Anne Unterriener after their arrival had a heated discussion on "The 10 ways to have a guy in your room and not get caught." In another room Carmen Ketchum, Sheila McGee, Judy Paterson and Joyce Whitmore were discussing the pros and cons of the History of Education methods class.

Last but not least Sharon Stadaker and her husband Ernest arrive, as well as Ellen Sullivan and Sarah Riley. Sue Schaul was unable to attend as she was with the Ice Follies. Nancy Lieb, Sharon Milos, Karen Moy and Judy Mandel piled out of a taxi to rush in just as the events are about to begin! Everyone had a very successful time and once again the event was a success!

*Life — so they say is but a game and they let it slip away Love — like the Autumn sun should be dying but it's only just begun Like the twilight in the road up ahead
They don't see just where we're goin'
And all the secrets of the universe Whisper in our ears and all the years will come and go And take us up, always up
We will never pass this way again . . .*

Tomorrow

*Let me not cast a backward glance
On scenes now past and gone.
But look with eagerness and joy towards tomorrow's dawn.*

*What I might do on yesterday Has now been left behind But, oh, the glorious challenges Tomorrow has defined!
I ask you, Lord, be lenient on failures of past years, And let them serve as guidelines
As the bright new day appears.*
