

Spring 5-23-2016

CHANGING BEHAVIOR WITH CHARACTER DEVELOPMENT, NOT DISCIPLINE

Tamariay Gordon

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.nl.edu/flmed_capstone

Part of the Educational Leadership Commons

Recommended Citation

Gordon, Tamariay, "CHANGING BEHAVIOR WITH CHARACTER DEVELOPMENT, NOT DISCIPLINE" (2016). FL MED Educational Leadership Capstones. 6.
https://digitalcommons.nl.edu/flmed_capstone/6

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Educational Leadership Dissertations at Digital Commons@NLU. It has been accepted for inclusion in FL MED Educational Leadership Capstones by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons@NLU. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@nl.edu.

CHANGING BEHAVIOR WITH CHARACTER DEVELOPMENT, NOT DISCIPLINE

Tamariay Gordon

Educational Leadership

Master of Education Program

Submitted in partial fulfillment of the requirements of

Master of Education

in the Foster G. McGaw Graduate School

National College of Education

National Louis University

May 23, 2016

Abstract

The Pine Rose School Board (pseudonym) made policy changes in discipline procedures that have affected the dynamics of safety at the Pine Rose Secondary School (pseudonym). After accepting a large number of reassigned students, it was incumbent upon the school leadership to adapt their policies and school-wide procedures to accommodate the needs of these students and staff. My project analyzes the results of the new plan and possibilities moving forward.